

Herbert Smith Freehills Head Office, Melbourne

In 2015, arete Australia was entrusted with renovating the Melbourne head office of Herbert Smith Freehills (HSF), a leading international law firm. Located in the iconic 101 Collins Street tower, this 1,300m² refurbishment showcased arete's expertise in high-end commercial spaces.

The project featured a luxurious reception area with imported marble counters, over 20 state-of-the-art meeting and conference rooms, designer floor finishes, and bespoke architectural elements. Custom upholstered panels and credenza units further enhanced the sophisticated aesthetic.

This project exemplifies arete Australia's ability to deliver premium office environments for discerning global clients.
